

House Resolution No. 2611

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize a remarkable Missouri citizen whose efforts and accomplishments have made her a source of inspiration to all those around her; and

Whereas, Jenn Fish, a resident of St. Louis, Missouri, has been chosen as a recipient of the 2007 Service Award, a most impressive accolade to be bestowed upon her by the Missouri Community Service Commission during the Missouri Service Day celebration to be held on April 25, 2007, at the Carnahan Memorial Gardens in Jefferson City; and

Whereas, Missouri Service Day is an observance of service by Missouri Learn and Service America Programs and school-sponsored service-learning participants; and

Whereas, Missouri Learn and Service is a federally-funded program which links service to the community through the curriculum; and

Whereas, the Missouri Service-Learning Advisory Council promotes and sustains service-learning as an effective instructional methodology for the educational, social, and civic benefit of students in grades K-12, as well as communities throughout the state; and

Whereas, a member of the AmeriCorps, Jenn Fish is a tutor for adult English Speakers of Other Languages at the International Institute, where she partners with teachers and administrative staff to increase academic achievement, enhance student leadership skills, provide a safe place for students in the extended day program, and increase school community partnerships; and

Whereas, Jenn Fish can take pride in knowing she has consistently given more than one hundred percent to all those activities in which she has so generously and enthusiastically participated:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Jenn Fish for her selection to receive the 2007 Service Award and in further wishing her continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jenn Fish.
